Queen's Lane Coffee House, on the corner of Queen's Lane and the High Street, is a living piece of Oxford's story. Coffee was first served here in 1654, which is why it is often regarded as one of the oldest coffee houses in Europe. Step inside today and you'll still feel the buzz: a warm, welcoming place where students, visitors and locals come together for a relaxed catch-up, something delicious to eat, and of course, a great cup of coffee brewed with centuries of tradition behind it.
